GAME DESCRIPTION

In this game you have to complete some tasks. If you do not buy all materials and do not issue a book from the library which is required for the lab, you can not enter into the LHC & Main Building. And also until you do not attend the lab in LHC, you cannot enter the Main building to get a pass. You need to keep track of your coins. If you collide with a jerk then you lose 20 coins.

Press 'BACKSPACE' : To Go Back

Description :

- Initially both players have 400 coins each. In both player's screens you will see the enemy in red and your color is blue.
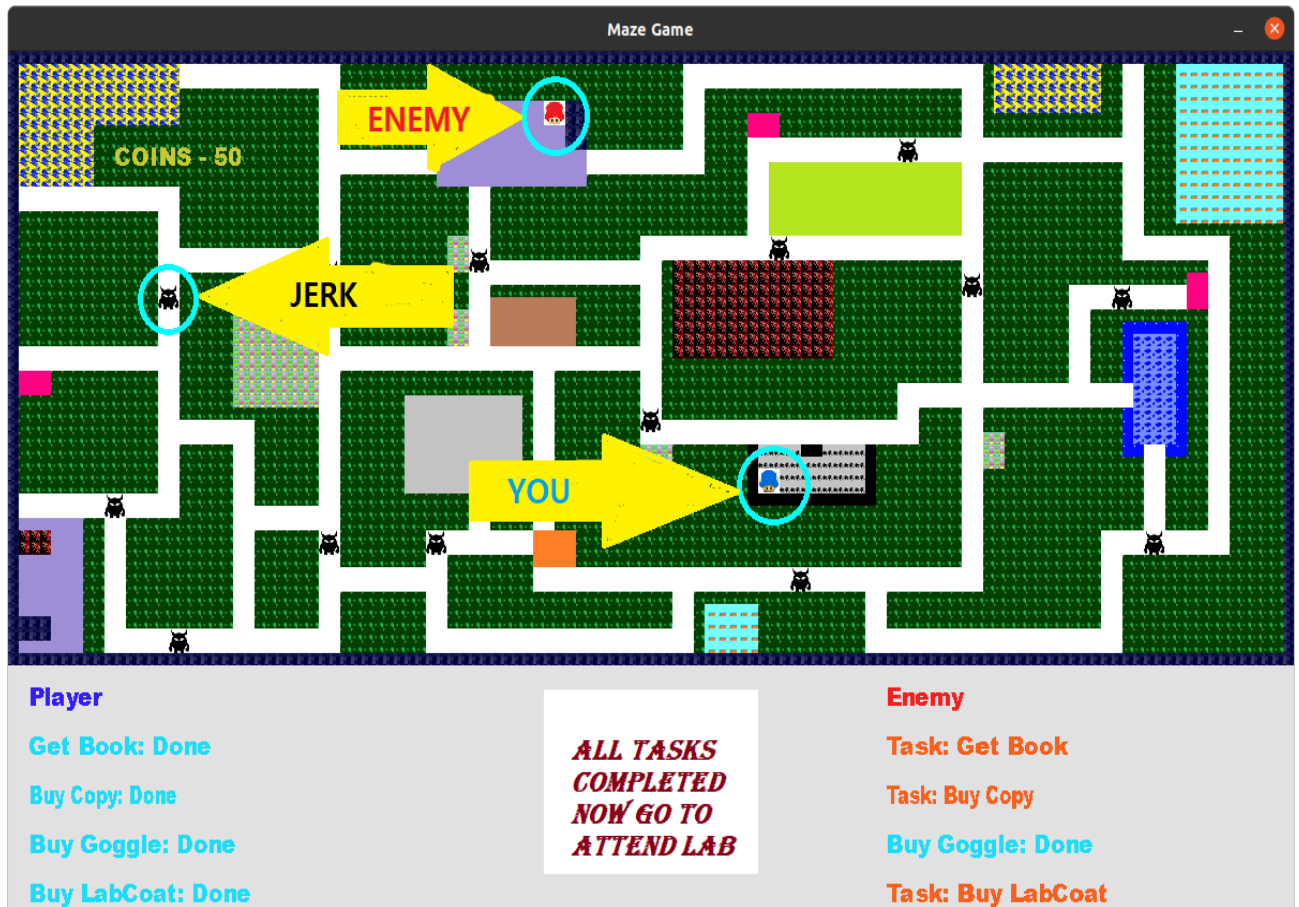

- Earning money from Workshops : If you do not have enough coins to buy material, then you can go to workshops where you can earn 20 coins each time after entering from one position to another position.There are two workshops wherever you want you can go there.

Tasks :

1. Firstly you have to issue a book from library which doesn't costs any type of coins i.e. (FREE) and also you have to buy a copy (50 COINS) , goggles(50 COINS) and Lab Coat(200 COINS).
2. As jerks wander everywhere you have to escape from them otherwise every time you collide with them you may lose 10, 20 or may be more coins as per collision level.
3. Secondly, Now you have all materials required for the lab, so you can enter into LHC to attend a lab.
4. Thirdly, You have to book a pass from the Main Building and get entry in the event organized at the ground.
5. After entering the ground Game Completed and that player will win who completed the game first.
6. Also If one player quit the game (By Pressing 'ESC') in between then the other player will win.
7. Also keep track of your coins. If any player's coin becomes zero then another player will win the game.
